

XII GÉRARD BOULVERT INTERNATIONAL PRIZE IN ROMAN LAW

The «Gérard Boulvert Society for the Study of European Civilization and for the History of its Legal Systems», in agreement with the Journal Index and accepting the invitation issued by Italian and foreign institutions and scholars, announces the Twelfth Gérard Boulvert International Prize in Roman Law. This award aims to encourage the development of research in Roman Law and to recognize, in the name of Gérard Boulvert, the works of young scholars of all nationalities published in the preceding three years.

1. The competition is hereby announced for the Twelfth Gérard Boulvert International Prize in Roman Law for a "first work" in the form of a monograph devoted to any of the sub-disciplines of Roman Law and to the other legal traditions of classical antiquity.

2. The amount of the prize, which cannot be reduced or shared, is twelve thousand euros (12,000 euros). The winner will also be awarded the medal of the University of Naples Federico II.

Special prizes, made available by the Board, will be bestowed by the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Italy, by the Institute of Roman Law at the University of Paris II, by the Centro Romanistico Internazionale Copanello (the Henryk Kupiszewski Prize), by University of Fribourg (Switzerland), by the Fondation Joseph Winkel (« Prix Hans Ankum » e « Prix Rolf Knütel ») as well as by other universities and institutions of higher learning.

3. The competition is open to scholars who have published, even electronically, or presented in its final form in a manner consistent with the rules and practices of various countries, their first monograph on topics concerning the disciplines specified in article 1 above during the triennium 2019 – 2020 – 2021.

4. Entries – using the form which can be downloaded on the website www.premioboulvert.unina.it – must reach the President of the Boulvert Prize, Professor Alessandro Corbino, at boulvert@unina.it, by December 31, 2021.

On or before the same deadline five copies of the work entered in the competition must be sent to the Secretariat of the Prize, Dr. Valeria Di Nisio c/o Consorzio Boulvert, via Porta di Massa 32 - I - 80133 Napoli.

Works written in languages other than Italian, French, German, English, Spanish or Latin must be accompanied by a detailed summary (at least 20 pages) in one of these languages.

5. The Board, in its final reasoned judgment, will award the Prize in the year 2022.

6. The Board consists of Professor Cosimo Cascione; University of Naples Federico II, Emmanuelle Chevreau of the University of Paris II Panthéon-Assas; Alessandro Corbino, President of the Prize Commission; Maria Floriana Cursi, University of Teramo; Teresa Giménez-Candela, Independent University of Barcelona; Fausto Gorla, University of Turin; Éva Jakab, University of Szeged; Carla Masi Doria, University of Naples Federico II; Thomas A.
